AGENDA February 2026

OLD BUSINESS

PEST CONTROL BYLAW

Purpose:

To give the second reading to a proposed Pest Control Bylaw, establishing regulations for the control and management of pests within the Municipality.

NEW BUSINESS

TAX ENFORCEMENT

Purpose:

To provide Council with an update on the status of tax enforcement proceedings.

Discussion:

Administration reviewed the option to apply to the Provincial Mediation Board to shorten the waiting period for taking title on properties in tax enforcement; however, no properties currently qualify for early application.

In addition, a final 30-day notice has been issued by the Provincial Mediation Board for Roll No. 90, with the condition that any proceeds above the amount of taxes owing will be returned to the property owner, in accordance with legislation.

BOULEVARD MAINTENANCE & ALTERATION BYLAW

Purpose:

To give first reading to the proposed Boulevard Maintenance & Alteration Bylaw, establishing regulations and a permitting process for work conducted on municipal boulevards.

Background / Discussion:

The proposed bylaw outlines requirements for obtaining permits, standards for construction and maintenance, responsibilities of property owners, and enforcement provisions to protect municipal infrastructure and ensure public safety.
